Mrs. Rebecca McLeod Laid To Rest Sunday

The funeral of the late Mrs. Rebecca Ann McLeod who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. McLeod on Wednesday, April 28th, was held in the Champion United church on Sunday afternoon, May 2nd. Rev. Peter Dawson conducting the services.

The deceased who was in her 70th year, was born in Bruce County, Ontario, came to the Champion district in 1904 from Ardooch, North Dakota, and lived on a homestead. She was then a widow with a large family, five daughters and four sons, all of whom survive her. It might well be said of the late Mrs. McLeod, "Her children rise up and call her blessed."

An exceptionally large number of relatives were present for the last rites, and many old friends and neighbors came to pay their last respects. Beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The pallbearers were Mrs. W. Willoughby-Jensen, Mrs. E. Summers, P. Holm, E. Wellman, Art Hopkins and E. Nowlin. Interment was made in the Champion cemetery.

Confirmation Of Six By Bishop Of Calgary

Rev. R. L. Ralph Sherman, Bishop of Calgary addressed a large congregation in the Community hall Sunday afternoon, the occasion being a Confirmation service at which the following candidates were received into membership of the Church of England: Barbara Dow, Ruth Dupue, Laura and Rose Chaproniere, Ronald Birkeness and Jack Chaproniere. Rev. T. B. Winter assisted at the services. The neighboring congregations of Carmangay and Vulcan were well represented and augmented the choir.

His Lordship expressed pleasure in being present at a first service when owing to present conditions, so many had to be curtailed, and recalled how about a year ago the parish of All Saints, Champion had been organized through the efforts of Canon Merrick of Claresholm in co-operation with a few members of the Anglican community here.

Bishop Sherman preached an eloquent and inspiring sermon on the subject of "Philip and the Disciples," and showed how an ordinary young man might become a power for good when consecrated to service. At the conclusion of Evenson and the Confirmation services, a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price where a social union was enjoyed.

The first visit of the Bishop of Calgary to Champion, which is remembered by those who were privileged to hear him.

Judge Jackson Gave An Interesting Address

His Honor Judge Jackson was the guest speaker at the bi-monthly meeting of the A.Y.C.A. held in the lower Community hall Friday evening, April 30th. The topic was the 103rd Olympic Games held in Berlin. Judge Jackson's comprehensive knowledge of the games was well appreciated. He spoke highly of the athletes of 32 countries who took part in the games and the splendid treatment given to the visitors by Germany, everything being arranged for their comfort and convenience.

Judge Jackson is well known all over the Dominion as a great sportsman. He told his audience that he believes that athletics for young people were the greatest preventive of crime and the greatest means to promote peace. He mentioned courage, the key note to success and gave instances of some who although handicapped by some physical defect had achieved success by their indomitable courage.

Speaking of the Hitler Regime the Judge said that during the last ten or twelve years, one thing that had been accomplished was the splendid physical training of the young of the country. He contrasted the conditions in Germany under the Nazi rule with Spain under Communism.

Will the ladies of the W. I. please note that the May meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 18th at the tea-house.

This is a week later than our usual date in the month.

The subject for the day is—"Education and Better Schools."

Please be prompt at 2:30 p.m. as we are invited to Miss McCullough's room in the Public School to see a demonstration of "Enterprise" by her pupils.

Refreshment convenor—Mrs. Dawson.

O. O. R. P. Celebrate Their Ninth Birthday

The O.O.R.P. celebrated their ninth birthday on Tuesday evening, when following their regular meeting they entertained the Elks at a bridge party held in the Community hall. In spite of the busy season most of the ladies and their guests turned out and in their usual happy manner made the evening a very enjoyable one.

The bridge was won by Mrs. M. G. Clever and W. J. Jopling, consolation Mrs. A. Neil McLeod and Nels Running. The first prizes were angel-food cakes, much to the delight of the recipients.

Following the bridge, G. M. Campbell in his usual inimitable style, acted as chief entertainer and a real hour of fun followed. Community singing proved to be popular. Mr. Campbell then produced a bit of comedy that really did get the laughs. With new ten-cent pieces as bait, he called, first upon any gentleman in the hall that could produce a picture of his mother-in-law to come forward.

This failed to bring a bite. However when he offered a ten-cent piece to the lady having a long hot pin on her person he was forced to relinquish his dine as Mrs. Neil McLeod produced the article. Next he offered the bait to any two ladies who would come forward and sing "Show Me The Way To Go Home." Mrs. F. Caldwell and Mrs. B. Hummel gallantly marched forward, sang the song and collected the money. The last time offered called for a gentleman to come forward and sing with Mr. Campbell. "The Little Old Red Shaver," George Rhodes willingly obliged and collected. Dainty refreshments were served under the co-operation of Ladies Farmer and Hummel, a special feature being the birthday cake decorated with rose buds and bearing nine candles, which was made and decorated by Mrs. P. Gottenberg.

Funeral service for the late Buller MacDonald Roberts was held in Calgary on Thursday, April 29th at Foster and Fosters funeral home. Rev. E. Mollville Aitken officiated and interment was made in Burns' laid cemetery. The tributes of flowers added mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The pallbearers were Dr. H. N. Hoel, Calgary; W. S. Ryan, Warner; A. W. Jopling, H. C. Jopling, Champion and two gas company officials.

P. T. A. Meeting

A meeting of the Champion-Carmangay Teachers' Institute was held in the Champion school on Saturday, May 1st. After the opening of the meeting Miss Boulter, Carmangay, gave a talk on Diagnostic and Remedial Teaching in Arithmetic. Following this an interesting demonstration was given by Miss Fleming concerning the use of Paper Mache in modeling. An instructive talk was given by Mr. Farries concerning the teaching of grammar. The programme was concluded by a discussion on current events led by Miss Collins followed by Miss Schultz. Plans were made for a picnic at the beginning of June.

Farm Home Razed

A fire of unknown origin destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art. Edlund, who are tenants on the farm owned by E. W. Matlock in the Gerrard school district north east of Champion. The fire occurred on Sunday afternoon while the family was away visiting. All the contents are a total loss.

The sky was overcast Wednesday morning and a light rain commenced following about nine o'clock. The moisture will be welcomed as many farmers were complaining of the seed bed being dry. All early seeded grain is showing well above the ground with a splendid stand. Seeding is approximately 60% completed with the old farmer through. Gardening is well underway. Trees are showing green and pastures are providing grazing. Gas relief was extended to a few farmers who were finding it difficult to obtain fuel for farming operations.

Mrs. J. O. Bell is convalescing in the Wales Hotel Calgary, following her recent operation in the General Hospital Calgary. Mrs. Bell, although slightly weak is making splendid progress toward complete recovery.

Needless Fatalities

The "drowning" season is at hand.

Once more the time of the year approaches when readers of the newspapers may expect to see reports under more or less startling headlines, of casualties in water—stories of adults and children who have gone down for the third time, never to leave the water alive.

During the late spring, summer and early fall months, water will take its annual toll of victims in the prairie provinces.

The pity of it is—and yet a consolation, too—that most of these deaths could have been avoided, for practically all drowning accidents can be tabulated within the scope of two categories, each of them to-day are avoidable, if the necessary precautions are taken.

Some people drown because they cannot swim. Others, who are able to swim, lose their lives in the water because they are physically unable to stand the shock, and severe convulsions which tie the muscles and make it impossible for them to help themselves.

The obvious preventive of loss of life in the water by non-swimmers is to learn to swim. There is nothing difficult about that. Swimming is a comparatively easy art to acquire, though it is true, some are more apt than others and as a result learn more rapidly than others how to keep themselves afloat in the liquid element.

It is not much use forbidding boys and girls to go down to the swimming hole to bathe. The lads and lasses cannot be blamed very much for attempting to seek relief from the torrid heat of the July and August sun in the cooling waters of the creek, the slough or the lake, whichever may be handy.

The joys which come from the healthful sports of bathing, swimming and diving should not be subjects of prohibition in a country where the season for each enjoyment is all too short and the opportunities for healthful recreation somewhat limited.

Instead of restriction there should be co-operation and assistance on the part of parents and teachers and every boy and girl should be taught to swim under proper supervision at as early an age as possible. In some of the tropical countries children are able to swim almost as soon as they can walk and equally as expertly. It would be almost impossible for them to drown.

Learning to swim should be part of the school curriculum and once or twice a week during the summer months, after school hours and during the vacation, children should be taught to swim and enjoy the pleasure of bathing. If there is suitable water within reasonable distance, swimming should be as natural to the prairie child as walking or running.

As for swimmers who perish because they are not in physical condition to stand the shock of cold water, even they can be rendered immune, if recently reported discoveries of medical science are authentic.

A Rochester, Minnesota physician recently announced, as a result of research and experimentation, that he has discovered that many people are hypersensitive to cold water. Hypersensitivity can be cured in a simple and easy manner and without benefit of medical attendance or the use of drugs.

To discover whether one is hypersensitive to cold and therefore in danger of succumbing to shock in the water, all that is necessary is to immerse one hand in ice cold water for a minute or two twice a day for a three week period. If the hand swells under this treatment, it is a danger signal. The experimenter is liable to discomfort in swimming if he or she ventures into the water, according to this authority.

Fortunately the remedy is as easy and simple as the test. One can be cured by continuance of the hand immersion practice until the swelling disappears. Then, according to the Rochester doctor, the "patient" has become desensitized and may venture into the water without incurring any risk of drowning from cramps.

If there is scientific authority for this discovery, a combination of tuition in the art of swimming and desensitization of all who might be subject to cramps would cut down the loss of life from drowning to almost zero.

It is true that every year lives are lost because boats and canoes are upset and their occupants tilted into the water, but most, if not all, lives lost as a result of this class of accident are due to the fact that either they are unable to swim or they are not in good physical condition. If the former, the risk would have been avoided by learning to swim and if the latter, by the simple method of desensitization before running the risk of going afloat in any type of capable craft.

The risks of drowning under either of the two causes assigned are too great to be ignored and all who embark either on or in the water should be able to carry out their enterprise with confidence that their safety is ensured in advance, for they have taken all the necessary precautions to avoid death for themselves and sorrow for their friends and relatives.

The telegraph companies should cultivate the good will of Kay Francis, dark-haired screen beauty. She believes that a recent telegram she received is the longest telegraphed proposal ever sent a Hollywood star. A Detroit amateur, terming himself "well fixed financially," dispatched a fervent 2,500-word telegram, which ran on over 22 telegraph forms. Miss Francis never did flourish it at any sitting except to find out the man was going to Hollywood for his answer.

Speed Has Been Exaggerated

Germany's Rearmament Program Will Take Some Time To Complete

There is no doubt about the magnitude of Germany's rearmament program; but its speed has been exaggerated. So writes Hanson W. Baldwin in a Berlin dispatch to the New York Times. After some apparently exhaustive checking up with expert observers, Mr. Baldwin writes: "Despite contrary reports, Germany was not ready last year to fight a major war when her troops marched into the Rhineland; she is not ready to-day and she will not be ready next year. It will be 1939 or 1940 at least, it is believed, before she can hope to complete training that will reserve of some 4,500,000 untrained men who had no experience with conscription between Versailles and Hitler. It will be two or three years at least before Germany, although straining every nerve, can pile up the reserve equipment needed for a massive army and can supply sufficient officers to command that army."

But Germany will fight before then, the Times correspondent contends, if necessity arises to fight. "Every one of her active units is at war strength, and in war camouflage, ready instantly," and "she to-day give any nation a scrap far more vicious than it would enjoy; and she could have done so yesterday."

It is the correspondent's opinion, however, that at the time of Rhineland occupation, Germany would have been beaten, if France "had taken positive measures," and that "Germany would not have been able to-day if France were her only opponent."

The Times' observer, however, does not minimize the prospective effectiveness of Germany's vast rearmament program. Germany has a reservoir of men from that reservoir does not possess and which Britain, without conscription, cannot utilize" and Germany is constantly drawing untrained men from that reservoir and turning them into soldiers—Buffalo Courier-Express.

Roses Along Railway Line

Stretch In New York State Solid Mass Of Rambles

The ramblers roses which line many miles of New Haven tracks in four States are all taken from a deep cut at Mount Vernon, N.Y. They were planted there in 1909 at a cost of $5,000. Since that time annual cuttings and transplanting have been made so that there are now 57,000 bushes along the line, reports The Mutual Magazine. The 41-mile stretch between New York and South Norwalk is practically a solid mass of these roses. Besides beautifying the right-of-way their roots materially retard soil erosion in the cuts.—New York Times.

Egyptian Census Discloses Mother And Daughter Over 100

The world's oldest living couple, a mother and her daughter, were "discovered" in a village of lower Egypt during the Egyptian census being carried out. The mother, Rifaia El-Sayed, is 107 years old, and her daughter, Mousharrafia Hadem, is 107. Even though they are wizened and their skin looks like old parchment, the census officials would not believe the ages claimed by the women until the mother began to talk about Napoleon's campaign in Egypt.

Rover Scouts Invited To Hold Next International Gathering In Canada

Rover Scouts from all over the world will be invited to hold their next international gathering, or rover moot, in Canada, in the summer of 1939. Announcement was made at the meeting of the executive committee of the Canadian general council of the Boy Scouts Association. The location of the proposed rover moot camp has not yet been decided.

The invitation will be presented through the international bureau at Imperial headquarters of the Boy Scouts Association, London. It is understood Poland also is making a strong bid for the moot. The last international rover moot was held near Stockholm, Sweden, and was attended by 3,000 rovers from 24 countries. Canada was represented by a rover patrol of seven.

An Unusual Fatality

Soldier Killed By Hazard To Be Escaped By Bicycleist

An immense crowd of people attended a funeral in London, Eng., to do honor to the memory of an Australian soldier who had been killed in a peculiar manner while in England as a member of the Australian military contingent to the coronation. He was hit by a bicyclist on Bridgegate Walk, outside Wellington barracks, where the Australian contingent was quartered.

The simplicity of the accident that took this man's life illustrates the anomalies that are found in the affairs of existence. Gunner Arthur Percy Sullivan, V.C., who was the victim of the mishap, won the Victoria Cross in 1919 when he rescued four comrades from a Russian swamp under heavy fire. After an experience of that kind, the normal conclusion would be that the subject would have a reasonable chance to escape the less spectacular hazards of the streets. But there is nothing certain in that connection and human beings must be prepared for the unexpected at all times.

A delegation of motorists of New York State which went to Albany last month to protest against boosting the state gasoline tax to 4 cents presented a convincing list of reasons why they shouldn't be singled out as victims of a budget-balancing tax grab.

Whether one agrees with what they said is beside the point. One of the basic tax arguments however is something tax authorities might consider. Jas. J. Cotter, a publisher of automobile trade magazines, presented figures that showed reduction of the tax to 3 cents increased consumption of gasoline more than 13,000,000 gallons a month resulting in employment of 2,800 men, while boosted gas taxes in other states caused business to fall off from 10 to 20 percent, with corresponding reduction when the extra cent was removed.

Even hard-headed governments can't afford to forget the value of the goose and the golden eggs. Taxation may defeat its own purpose, a circumstance that enlightened self-interest should seek to avoid. This is also a good argument for the larger economic considerations involving unemployment. Just arrived, the New Coronation Arrow Shirts for men, who like something different, at Campbell's.

Dr. Froese received word last week of the marriage of his sister, Mrs. Pugsley on Wednesday, April 21st to Dr. John M. Lewis at Yuma, Arizona. Dr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside at Winters, Yolo County, Calif.

A meeting to discuss organization of a branch of the People's League of Alberta was held in H. Mackie's office at Champion, Alberta, on May 3rd, at 8:30 p.m.

Despite the fact that many farmers are busy seeding, the meeting was very well attended and it was unanimously decided to invite speakers from Calgary to address a meeting to be held at Champion, between the dates May 19th and May 31st, for the purpose of hearing more fully about the League and its work. It is proposed to organize a branch of the League here following the address by the Calgary speakers.

Service will be held in the music room of the school on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Moss will give a special message for Mother's Day, all welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Arrowwood visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Hummel on Sunday.

Mrs. J. N. Beaubler will be among the speakers, when former provincial presidents of the Women's Institute, will relate highlights of Institute work during their term of office, at the provincial convention to be held at the Palliser hotel, May 24th to 29th, at Calgary.
